Accolade recognizes top golf and meeting properties around the world

PEBBLE BEACH, Calif. (July 16, 2013) – Pebble Beach Resorts is the proud recipient of the 2013 Gold Tee Award by Meetings & Conventions magazine. Given annually to outstanding golf and meeting properties around the world, the Gold Tee Award honorees were nominated and selected by more than 50,000 readers of the publication based on each property's overall excellence.

"There is something truly special about gathering at Pebble Beach and we are proud to receive this wonderful honor that exemplifies the once-in-a-lifetime experience that we bring to each and every guest," says Pebble Beach Company Director of Sales Ann McAuliffe. "Regardless of the meeting's size or the total experience participants are looking for, group events at Pebble Beach Resorts are custom-tailored for every need, with guests given unparalleled access to all the amenities of this special destination."

Since 1919, the unmatched beauty of Pebble Beach Resorts on California's Monterey Peninsula has served as the backdrop for legendary events big and small, from corporate conferences, board meetings and sales programs to exquisite weddings and special private golf tournaments. "Meetings & Conventions readership of 50,000 corporate, association, and incentive meeting professionals know quality when they experience it—and made their votes count, selecting the golf properties they believed to be most outstanding."

Meeting planners, like those surveyed from Meetings & Conventions, choose from three award-winning accommodations at Pebble Beach Resorts, including The Lodge at Pebble Beach, the historic property overlooking Pebble Beach Golf Links and Stillwater Cove; The Inn at Spanish Bay, offering versatile indoor and outdoor contemporary space for any private function; and Casa Palmero, the perfect secluded oasis ideal for small gatherings and board meetings.
